

A method for solution of systems of linear algebraic equations with m-dimensional lambda matrices. A system of linear algebraic equations with m-dimensional lambda matrices is considered. The proposed method of searching for the solution of this system lies in reducing it to a numerical system of a special kind.

